

MVH3

If the hare ain't live, it ain't Mt. Vernon.

---

Run: # 872

Date: February 7, 2004

Hares: Womb Broom, Running Bare, Cork Screwed, 14Karat Cock

Location: Bushmill Elementary School, Alexandria

The day was sunny and the trail was well marked from the start. The pack circled, sang, played at some form of calisthenics, and then all were off. First the walkers decided to shortcut and followed Big Bird Turd, in a loop. Why - no one could answer that question. The walker's trail was so well marked - it even had checks for them to solve. Ah yes, walkers hate to think. They like beer and they like to walk but think - no it takes too much time. (Editorial opinion not based on any historical documents).

Then it was the runner's turn to go full tilt. Okay, the check was a little too close to the walker's trail that was in the same shade of rose-colored flour. The question is how did Leave It In Beaver find trail? The larger question is did he call them on? Did anyone use their whistles to bring the lost and confused back onto true trail? No worries for they had a long wait and they got cold waiting for the hares barely had a chance to race back and get the bag vehicle.

On In

The weather was balmy and the sun kept all warm and toasty as we waited for the pizza. Not a bad deal - $5 for a couple of slices of pizza and all the great beer you could drink. Wonder if the keg was ever floated. Hashers took this opportunity to retrieve their cars while the rest of the pack came in. Let's nor forget the wonderful snacks to include pork rinds!!

NOTE FROM TOMORROW'S HARES – WHO LET THE DOGS OUT!!!

They wish the pack to review the following prior to trail:

I have asked Hard Drive to put the large file attachment on the electronic Trash. If that does not work and there are maximum size requirements (Dual says size is important), then attach the following web site.
Thanks, Loan Shark
