TRAIL REPORT

Thank goodness, it wasn't raining this week!! In fact, the weather was perfect. Once again, I was late getting there, so I have no idea how Father Abraham went. I did manage to get there just as everyone was taking off walking. It must be a first, tho, it wasn't even 10:15!!!! Since when is mismanagement so on top of things???? The runners and walkers shared the trail for a short time before a split. We stayed in very nice residential areas and a few wooded paths, but no really bad spots. I heard from the runners that the trail was really good (shhhh, don't tell the hares). The only comment was that there were a lot of hills, oh well, wimpy dudes (B'CUZ HE CAN is rumored to have said something on these lines)... Oh and YOU'VE GOT TAIL was disappointed that there wasn't enough water for BLANKCHECK to do the usual puddle splash for the wet t-shirt contest. The walkers trail was a little hilly, but as most are too busy chatting to notice, no one complained. No one complained about the hills that is. BIG BIRD TURD did a little vent on those who contribute to the MVH3 group using potty language. Many of us have servers that filter that sh*t out, so we never get to read any of it, quite a bummer. Back to the trail...

Supposedly ASS ORGE caught the hares, but some claim he was shortcutting. Another point taken was that there was a time on some trail markers. How did one spot on the trail have a marker four minutes after take off when it took the runners 40 to get there?

It was quite the day for yard sales, you couldn't go five minutes without seeing 'treasures' lining the sidewalks. Lots of potential for good hashit, but being the cheap crowd that we seem to be, no one bought squat. At one yard sale, we were asked about what the occasion was. LATE COMER was very encouraging and p.c. when describing what we were. CHEAO SKUT was quick to offer other activities that she should interested in, primarily mooning... So far we have been working off my memories, the next section is from my notebook. If it seems a little murky, it might be because LULU THE GAY ASILOR spilled beer in our bag which held my little notebook..

The On-In was high-class, store bought fried chicken and a phenomenal selection of beer. There was also home-made side dishes and watermelon, yummm... FLYING BURITO did

IMPORTANT

IT IS SUMMER... IT IS HOT... DON'T BRING YOUR DOG!

All of us at MVH3 love and care about pets... however, it is because we care about them that we ask you to exercise brains and leave them at home in this weather!

about everything this time as WOMB BROOM was busy elsewhere, and the circle just keeps getting better... BUTT PLUT was cited for trying to catch bees with her hair and for excavating a lost thong. It was noted that the hash is frequently in the area near PUT IT OUT's place, but the On-In never happens there. HOLLOW POINT was conspicuous with his obscene 'Beltway' Injury (the middle finger bandaged up for those of you who can't read between the lines). BIG BANG was hooted for his last few hours as a bachelor (he and SNATCH SHOT are getting married if you didn't know, I didn't). LULU got grief from GAY SHIP LOLLIPOP for following too closely and thus preventing a good grope of LET'S MAKE A DEAL. (I just got the poopy scared out of me, when LOLLIPOP ran up behind me and did the gotcha thing). Lastly, BUTTERCUP ad LOLLIPOP were 'caught in the act'...BUTTERCUP was licking LOLLI'S cleanly shaven head and he was all-a-flutter!!

That's it from me for the next 3 hashes. I am off to Germany and Egypt on vacation. See everyone when I return!!!

Oxoxoxoxoxoxo

On-Out,

LET'S MAKE A DEAL

I found this logo on the web... does this mean the CRAFTY and DUAL AIR BAGS have to hare together next time?!?!? Maybe DAB can teach CRAFTY to give directions?!?!? (just kidding CRAFTY, you know I luv you man!) ~DC

Mud Pies

- 2 scoops of dirt
- a puddle of water
- a sprinkle of rocks
- lots of rays of sunshine
- a couple of sticks

Remove rocks and sticks from dirt by playfully sifting through fingers. Set these aside for final decoration. Scoop out a dirt bowl in the ground next to a mud puddle. Mix sifted dirt and water, a little at a time. Stir with a stick until thick. Pat a handful into the palm of your hand back and forth (pattycake-style) rounding the edges with your fingers. If water runs through your fingers down to your elbows, you need more dirt. Lay out on clean grass or a smooth rock. Decorate with pretty rocks and sticks. Bake for a couple of hours in the warm sunlight. Serves as many as you want to play.
