TRAIL REPORT

What a great day for a hash!!! I, LET'S MAKE A DEAL missed the last three and forgot how much fun it is to torture one's self. It was warm, but not yet as muggy as I expected. We had a nice group of running/walking psychotics (those that can't quite decide where they fit it in). Combination of guilt for not exercising and not wanting to look too wussy, can push one to excel!! BRONCO BUSTER, VIBRATOR, and I thought we'd do a slow run. It was soon apparent that VIBRATOR sold herself short and quickly left us in the dust. Being left in the dust has its advantages, though as we could see the pack bob and weave and cut a little bit off our trail. The trail went through a nice park, and those so inclined could stop and watch a puppet show. Maybe this is how we caught up with FOR SALE OR RENT, HOLLOW POINT and YES DEAR. After a few checks we ended up at a dog park and lost HOLLOW POINT and YES DEAR. Just before the long and winding creek (la la sing it) we again caught HOLLOW POINT and YES DEAR, this time with BURNING BUSH. Seems they had a GPS and were going to short cut the creek (they did eventually make it to the circle, though WAY late). Once in at the circle it was apparent that the hares have no taste (for beer anyway)! At least the food was good and the setting was great. The walkers didn't have too much to say. HOT LEGS and WANKERS AWEIGH came late, so they claim they didn't have any dirt to share. I couldn't get anyone to admit to anything happening... BORING!!! They did come in after the runners for a change. ORGAN ICER said this was so that there would be food left for the runners for once. BAVARIAN BUSH, JUST PAM, and AND HOWS HER BUSH all whined about the runners trail being too short. They thought the circle was just a beer check. Someone else accused the hares of dropping flour every 5 feet, rumor has it that LOAN SHARK bought 40 lbs of flour and was determined to use it. I also heard that CRAFTY made an early 7-11 stop for Gatorade on trail. As for FRBs, LULU claimed he would have been, but he had to do his duty and stop and wait frequently for DIAPER RASH. As always, POOPDECK managed a pretty good shortcut and did part of both the runners and the walkers trail. SNOT on the other hand didn't fare so well and just made it in before the walkers. QUICK DRAWERS managed to score the most number of shortcuts, which brought him in close to SNOT. The circle was quite busy. First there were some media violations. CRAFTY's buff image was in a college pamphlet for the Wisconsin Panthers and

IMPORTANT

Be considerate to your fellow hashers... when you get to a check and solve it - MARK IT so others behind you will know which way to go!

STANDARD DEVIANT had a website. FRENCH TOASTED was said to have passed off the hashit to DO ME NEXT WEEK, and then took it back out some sense of pity. BLANK CHECK was amazingly color-coordinated, no one recognized him. Three hashers up for renaming kept their names. THIRTY-EIGHT FLAVORS, MUDPIE and NUT MECHANIC valiantly defended their moniker. JUST LINDA was named GPO for GETS PISSED ON. (She works for the Govt Printing Office and likes Calvin and other comics) Other announcements: PUPPY PIMP and VIBRATOR are leaving town, the nerve. BURNING BUSH is turning 30!!! Finally the hashit went to HOLLOW POINT. He and BURNING BUSH were lost together for some time and as they approached the on-in, HP remarked that he didn't want to be last in, so BURNING BUSH let him run ahead, tch tch tch. Toodles!!!!

Hares: SIMON and ART, BILLY JEAN and BOBBIE SUE

Start: Down at the end of Lonely Street, at Heartbreak Hotel

Directions: From All Points North, South, East & West:

Go down to the end of the street where the store is, make a LEFT and find the small wooden sign that says "here".... just after the sign there will be a path, go along the path following to the other direction... when you find the old house on the left, make a turn and go up "aways" where you'll see a hill with a huge rock. Climb the hill and stand on the rock and yell "ON-ON". If no one answers you, you're not at the hash... you're lost. Find a phone and call 202 PUD-JAMA0 to get the directions.

Metro: Metro can sometimes be a good choice, but not always.

Dog Friendly Factor: No trail is dog friendly in the summer; it's too hot!

Stroller Friendly Factor: Some trails are Stroller Friendly and some are not. But then again, what is Stroller friendly really?

Miscellaneous: Pack a lunch just in case you get lost. Or put on a bright nametag showing your name and address so that strangers will know your name and where you live and can rob you.
