Hash Trash for 25 Nov 2006
Run Number 1022

Hares: Loan Shark, Cheap Slut, Organ Icer, and Cork Screwed

As we start this week's Hash Trash we should take a moment to recall the sacrifices made by the Pilgrims, our first hashers in the new world. It is not generally known that the Pilgrims left England first for the Netherlands and then to New England in search of religious freedom. King James had made things intolerable for the Pilgrims by passing laws against singing bawdy songs, and prohibiting women from showing their bosoms. Dual's Great Hasher Mother was burned at the stake. Consumption of the 17th century's favorite beverage (BEER) was also severely limited. So the Pilgrims left their homeland for America. Upon arriving at the site of modern Provincetown, MA, they disembarked and gave thanks to God by singing the first Father Abraham followed by running around the beach naked and drinking beer (all traditions which still are common in modern Provincetown.) The celebration ended with the first singing of "Swing Low" on American soil.

Flash thee forward 385 years to find MVH³ in the parking lot of an Annandale, VA library (as if any hasher has ever been inside one before). The day was sunny and warm; Master CRAFTY (the good RA of the south) led the congregation in Thanksgiving and song. The hares Master Loan Shark, Master Cheap Slut, Mistress Organ Icer, and Master Cork Screwed promised a live trail (yeah right). Master Byte Lightning was heard telling Master Clorox Kid, "I pray thee do not remove thy shirt else I shall be struck blind by thy summer tan which did not take". Soon the pack headed off (who said HEAD?) and across route 136 (no doubt an early attempt by the hares to thin out the herd). The usual suspects took over as FRB's, Master Byte, Master Jekyll, and Mistress Runt. Early on in an attempt to out think the FRB's I checked left only to hit a BT and find myself DFL. Coming up on the pack from behind I watched with fascination as Mistress Bad Ditch stripped down to her jogging bra. I thought my shouts of one more layer had gone unheard when she lowered her shorts to reveal a brief half moon.

Soon our thoughtful hares brought us past a Medical Facility. No one seemed in need of ce so I pressed on. Everything was now looking very familiar; kind of like we've been on these roads before. (It was later noted during circle that with Master's Cheap Slut and Loan Shark setting trail they can set the same trail each week and still think it is brand new.) Imagine how thrilled they must be when they find the bathroom in their own homes. Imagine how thrilled their wives are when they find it as well.

On the walker's trail Good Wife Hot Legs and Mistress Milk Money took the lead. The other pilgrim's followed at a more leisurely pace on a beautiful cottage and garden tour. Trail continued through several neighborhoods and past golf course and finally up the familiar wooded hill behind Master Loan Shark's house where runners and walkers met again. The pack was treated to a feast of fried and roast turkey, stuffing and beer.

Circle was called and was run mostly by Master Put it Out (the wicked RA of the west). I wouldn't call the circle boring but it hadn't been going on long when Master Tore Ass noticed the buzzards circling overhead. The pack quickly realized the problem and moved the bodies of Master's Loan Shark and Cheap Slut out of the circle. With that problem solved we went on to toast the hares, visitors, virgins, violations and whatever else. All in all a great day for hashing and one to be thankful for.

Make sure you scour your house looking for the appropriate gift for next week's White Elephant Hash.
Duals promises to bring her spandex bustier lamp. Link will try and find the Max Headroom t-shirt. [Who said Head?] Be sure to bring an appropriate, wrapped Gift. Please reminder to wrap early and often.
