If you don't start in the morning, you can't drink all day!

Hares: And How's Her Bush?, Just Voided, Bavarian Bush, and Thumbdexterous.

Today the hares brought us down to the McLean Community Center site of many multi-million dollar houses as well as home to the CIA. The hash was sharing the Community Center parking lot with the Mclean Community yard sale. Do Me Next Week immediately upon arrival headed off to check out the yard sale with the Hash Checkbook in hand.

Voided was busy taking a Haberdasher survey about what types of haberdasher items we can be made to buy once we've had enough alcohol. I didn't see MVH3 logo condoms listed however, (sizes could be large, extra large, enormous, and Oh My God!)

Wankers Aweigh and Hot Legs were describing the home inspection experience with their new buyers. Apparently the CSI home inspector discovered stains on the carpet using his ultraviolet light. Wankers and Hot Legs said the stains were from the cats. (Right I've watched enough CSI now to know what other kinds of stains show up under UV light!)

After much discussion and several backroom deals orchestrated by Loan Shark who relied on his experience trading lunch items in grade school, the Father Abraham duties were traded back and forth and finally ended up with Wanks With Wolves and 2 Hand Job (God that woman can sing! With a melodious voice like that she is a definite early candidate for RA next year.)

Still enthralled by the voice of 2 Hand Job the pack wandered to find trail. The pack separated quickly this time as Byte Lightning was in the hashing zone this morning and hit every check dead on. I on the other hand went the other way and quickly lost sight of the lead pack (Pulls Out Early, French Toasted, You've Got Tail and a few others) who had also failed to carry chalk with them to mark the checks. This forced the second pack consisting of Wankers Aweigh, Lulu the Gay Sailor, Just Alison, BOB, Roxy Moron, Just Alison and Just Craig, and CJ to solve each of the checks again. Just Alison and Just Craig were our virgins but after running several miles with this pack I'm sure that status changed before the run was over.

Lulu was proudly showing everyone that he didn't have any tan lines after his Mexican vacation. Those of us running with him were wishing we had taken the walkers trail so we could check Let's Deal for tan lines instead.

Did I mention it was hot today? Just before circle started, I asked if anyone would give me mouth to mouth in case I passed out at circle, but the only response I got was from the Clorox Kid who offered to pee on me to keep the animals from eating me. The pack now having been fed on salad, pasta and beer then proceeded to be led in circle by Boy Toy.

Virgins: Lots of virgins today, the hot weather must bring them out. Just Cathy, Just Craig, Just Allison, Just Nicholas, and Just Maria. They all must be into group sex because they all seemed to cum together.

Visitors: No one came to visit.

Returners and Backsliders: Puts it Out got his AGM mug (you may remember him, he used to be the evil RA). Happy on His Knees, Microsoft, Payload Bastard, Hands Solo, Missed Erections, Granny Boulders, Lulu the Gay Sailor, CJ, Let's Make a Deal, Green Piece of Ass, Puts it Out.

Namings: None today.

Analversaries: Just Voided-35, Do Me Next Week-269, Loan Shark-315, and the leader this week Be Cuz He Can with 355.

Birthdays: None anyone would admit to.

Violations: Bavarian Bush for telling me the hares picked the upper parking lot because it was a long way from the yard sale and Americans were too fat and lazy to walk that far to the sale so we should have the parking lot to ourselves (she was absolutely correct but we still violated her anyway). Loan Shark was violated for using his school lunch room trading skills to get out of doing Father Abraham. Happy On His Knees forgot that it is now June and wore sweat clothes which apparently didn't suit him well since he was spotted blowing chunks in the bushes just before circle started. French Toasted was turned in for not carrying the large piece of chalk Byte gave him to mark trail forcing the secondary pack to solve all the checks again. Granny Boulders was sporting a new hair style and was violated because the curtains now match the rug. At first I thought they were talking about how she redecorated her house but Wanks With Wolves splained it all to me. Wankers Aweigh violated his own wife Hot Legs who after making him slave away for hours doing home projects only offered to blow the deck. The Clorox Kid was violated for getting lost on trail within 30 seconds of starting the run (trust him, he knows the area). Puts it Out drank as well for trusting him and following along. You've Got Tail and Hickey Mouse were violated for failing to find the start. They went to TOTAL WHINE to buy beer instead. Milk Money was violated for having a twin, our virgin Just Alison who was brought forward to drink as well.

Hash*t: Since the reigning Hash*t, Dual Airbags decided not come this far north we were unable to award the Hash*t but fear not we already have a strong contender for the award at the next hash. On On -BHC

Culture Corner

Hash word of the week:

Titivate (TIT-i-vayt)

To make smarter; to spruce up; to decorate.

As in: The grandmasters titivated the hall in preparation for the White Elephant Hash.
