Quote of the Week

"I don't stick out any more." Raise My Titanic

The History of a Golden Douche

A long, long time ago (2 years to be exact) the extraordinarily talented minds of the White House Hash House Harriers realized how much more fun a hash would be if the hares hid douches on trail filled with their favorite golden-colored alcohol of choice. For its third r*unning, Tequila was the carrot to tempt our wankers into climbing trees or leaping into rivers to find the almighty cleaning tool. Appropriately, Summer's Eve, Señor Deucheberg, Closet Slut, and Douche's Wild had the honor of haring this momentous occasion.

Look at all the Happy Hares that have found a Golden Douche!! They are very very happy. Keeping their enthusiasm inside, we see professional Wankers: Please

Step Away from the Whore, and No Genitals. And who the Hell is this guy that wore a tie to the Hash?? Maybe he was looking for Great Falls.

It's been a long time...

Since all these Hashers have cum to visit us. Nice to see you again. Thanks for the head. Hope to “see” you next week!

Solemn Occasion

We decided it was time to name the blimey bastard we've been calling Just so-and-so for too long. Many glorious cognomens were suggestions – Such gems as Tea & Scruppets and I'm not British, I'm Gay were thrown out for the one that struck our dearest hearts. And he shall forever be referred to as God Fuck the Queen.

Violations

- Snatch Shot & Big Bang – Though these wankers skipped the Circle, they deserve to be violated as this is their last hash before getting hitched (aka. their last opportunity for sex on trail with someone else)!
- Red Eyed Vagina – Wearing the same outfit and being just as drunk as the last time we had the circle at this location
- Fuck'em Dano – Complaining about having too much pussy on his penis
- Roll Over Bitch – Pretty much for being the offspring of Ass Hopper
