WTF?

What the fuck got into you wankers last Monday? I'm not complaining, but man were we rowdy. It started like all the others...late and disorganized. The hares took off before the bag vehicle arrived and they had a 45-minute head start. Titley started us off with a very perky opening circle that she was later violated for. Fiddy and Titanic welcomed the visitors with a beautiful heart felt rendition of the White House Cheer.

The run? Well I have to admit. It didn't suck. It had shiggy, water, pedestrians, da hood, asphalt and unsuspecting sidewalk diners. We also encountered some kickballers. They think they know how to party. HAH! Oh and beer. It had beer. Lots of beer. Or was that me. Whatever. We had a really good time.

Just Katie was named beer bitch. Not only did the Post make her come, her mom made her come too. And something keeps her coming again and again.

VIRGIN DOG PASSES OUT AT CLOSING CIRCLE

The other Just Katie's dog helped himself to beer at the beer check. He was last seen staggering and falling down at the closing circle. Now that's a true hasher.

JUST RON NAMED PROPHAGALACTIC

The closing circle amazingly went off without a hitch. The cops didn't even notice us. We even managed to name Just Ron. In a narrow victory over Sponge Bob Spuge Pants, Star Whores and The Diaphragm, we named him Prophagalactic. Just Gwen had the honors of getting him wet and she took her job seriously. She emptied the pitcher on his head, on his clothes, on his shoes, and on anyone who happened to be standing too close.

So what happened at Millie and Al's? I'm not sure I remember. Everyone was as drunk as me, right? I don't know if it was Glow Worm's appearance or the $1 Jello shooters that got is in the mood. After getting trashed, the Orange Liners headed out and annoyed the Metro riders. But its okay. Please Step Away was with us.

Olympidicks Torch Lit

The Oympicdicks torch has started its journey. Created by Titanic, the torch is presented to a lucky hasher at every hash to carry proudly through the trail. The torch will make its final stop at the White House Camping Trip for the opening ceremonies.

Quote of the Week

"Stop petting. Stop petting." Overhead by Titanic in a conversation between SCFC and Baw Chicka Baw Baw
