"SH*T Hash Invasion"

Hash # 957

For the Love of Hills

What do you think of when you think of Rosslyn? Hills? What's better than hills? Back Checks?

And How's Her Bush took off without telling Brew Crew the location of the beer check (see Violations). Before the hounds were released, Utter Ho educated us on the SH*T Hash markings. Despite short attention spans, being stupid and not listening, we managed to find the beer check AND the closing circle. We only lost about 6 or 7 virgins. If you see them, tell them the war is over and they should go home.

NEWSLETTER

I heard Burnt Sox telling virgin Just Dee that the Hash Trash is a weekly newsletter. Its weekly if you're lucky. Its definitely not news. And with the atrocious grammar, it barely qualifies as a letter. But yeah, it's a newsletter. Its informative...if you believe everything you read. SUCKERS! It has pictures. We like pictures.

Just Kevin Designated Beer Bitch

I tried to get the dirt on Just Kevin, but he wasn't giving up any dirt. But he is cumming to the camping trip. So we can sleep with him and name him on the same weekend. What goes at the camping trip, stays at the camping trip.

Definitions

Shiggy Nasty, unpleasant obstacles encountered on the trail. Generally, these are natural and not man-made, e.g., dense brush, mud, briars, foul-smelling glop, swamps. Fellow hashers are usually excluded from this category.

FRBs (Front Running Bastards) These are the overachieving hashers who forgot that the hash is a non-competitive event for beer drinkers. You continually find them showing off at the front of the pack.

SCBs (Short Cutting Bastards) These are sneaky, clever hashers who manage to find a shorter (usually unmarked) route to the beer, without getting themselves completely lost, or arrested.

Virgin No, we are not naïve enough to mean this literally! This term refers to otherwise normal people who participate in their first hash. This designation may or may not correspond to the individual's sexual status.

Whining Trying to make any semblance of a defense against any violation charges. Expect to perform a Down Down if found guilty.

Mismanagement The group of half-brains who mistakenly thought they were volunteering for some sexual adventure when asked what position they wanted to be in.

Hash Cash Usually, the hasher driving the nicest car, paid for with funds skimmed from the hash. The Hash Cash acts as the treasurer.

Scribe Usually, the only hasher stupid enough to admit possessing writing skills. Publishes the weekly Hash Trash. A good person to suck up to if you want your name in/out of the Hash Trash.

Quote of the Week

"It's a wet one."

Gimme a Dick

Mr Softie asked
Tapped Three Times

"Do you want it now?"

Violations

And How's Her Bush (Stupidity)-Not telling Brew Crew the location of the beer check

Rocket Socket, Titanic, and Gimme a Dick (Racing)-ON THE WALKER'S TRAIL

Senior Doucheberg – Do I have to elaborate?

Rose Butt – You had to be there. Something about female salamanders.

Roll Over Bitch (Incest) – He violated his Dad, Ass Hopper.

Titely Winks for violating me.
