

THE DAILY GASH

All Those Juicy Tidbits Leftover from Last Week's Activities

“When Good Beer Goes Bad”

Several comments of the dark beer at the hash today involved allegations that it was skunky. Several people accused the Yuengling Black & Tan as tasting like ass. BackSnatch commented, “This tastes worse than ass! And I’ve had plenty of ass in the past!” He went further to say that “It takes a lot to make this cheap piss they call light beer taste good, but they seem to have managed.” DesignerBush discovered that if one mixed the flat light beer with the skunky dark beer that it came up with an acceptable elixir. However, others didn’t notice. F’emDano was accused of actually liking the beer, but then again, Dano will drink anything put in front of him. YellowSubmarine personally enjoyed the taste of a dirty nasty sock in his beer, saying it reminded him of his childhood.

WoWo went so far as to make a new song:

If your beer tastes like shit, throw it over!

If your beer tastes like shit, throw it over!

If your beer tastes like shit, and you cannot stomach it,

If your beer tastes like shit, throw it over!

In the end, it was decided that $25 kegs from Dixie Liquor would be looked upon with suspicion in the future.

“Wankers Invade Oxen Hill, Locals Concerned”

Over 50 Caucasians were observed running through the streets of Oxen Hill on Sunday. They were first observed milling about the old Arc of Safety parking lot. “Dammit, I thought we had just gotten rid of the riff raf,” observed one local who declined to be named. “I bet they’re gonna try an’ convert us over to law abiding citizens. Well, I ain’t gonna!” To prove the point, they mugged HashCash TestTubeBaby on his way from the metro. Unfortunately, they didn’t realize he didn’t actually have money until after those crackers coughed up their cash.

After a chilly version of jumping up and down, they were noticed running towards the Oxen Hill Farm, down a big hill and then coming right back up. Apparently they had found a coke deal going down and decided to go back where they came from. The wankers then proceeded to terrorize the local beaver families in the area. SmokeyTheBeaver seemed concerned that some of her family members had been trampled in the masses, but was comforted that her favorite member of the family was spotted between her legs.

After drinking beer in some container other than a 40 in front of a house where a suspicious dump truck has been spotted in the past, they continued on crossing over major roads before returning back to the Arc of Safety parking lot. They then proceeded to participate in some cultlike activities, chanting and in general raising a state of alarm. "I don't normally like calling the 5-0," claimed one citizen, "it typically makes them suspicious of me, but I didn't like the looks on their faces." Unfortunately, the officers arrived after the shady group had already departed.

"Would You Like Fries With That?"
OwFuckElectishity was spotted trying to steal everyone's bags today. Thankfully, several hashers spotted him pulling into the near by McDonald's. "There were a few hungry bags in the back that were insisting on a Happy Meal. You know how kids get." We don't and many wankers were wondering why they didn't get a happy meal and started crvino

Pussy Engulfs Can
SweetHomeVagina announced that it was her pussy's birthday and that it would be allowed to have an entire can of tuna. Assfinder noted that he had a tuna can he was willing to give the little kitty. We're sure the pretty pussy will have a happy birthday thanks the generosity of the hashers.
