Corrections to last week's Trash

Ok, so you guys are typically drunk when reading the hash trash and I'm typically drunk when writing it. Did you really expect me to get everything right on the first try for the WH4 1000th weekend? Shit, I'm still trying to figure out what I did with my shoes and who that girl I woke up with is. So there were a few things wrong with last weeks trash. In no particular order:

- We named SmallWonder because of the size of his penis after the state of Delaware, not New Jersey. Does anyone really know the difference? It's not like we're ever going to see that guy again.

- We named the guy ButtBrownAle not NutBrownAle as previous identified. There's an interesting story behind his name, details later.

- It was StopTheErection who had a problem pouring his beer into the cup not Can'tFindPussyInAHaystack. To be fair, one can see how I was mistaken, one can't put beer through a hole into a cup, another can't find a hole at all. There were likely other mistakes, but go figure, I'm drunk again.

WH4 Visits Little Korea Town (AKA Annandale)

The hares this week took us on a tour of little town Korea. We started in a parking lot and had to run around a fence just to get to the sidewalk. JackOffLantern tried to jump the fence, but wound up catching his shoe on the top of it and damn near killed himself on the concrete. We continued on and managed to find some shaggy and ran for a while.

Just as we were nearing the beer check, the FRBs came flying down a hill and had to duck underneath a pair of thick branches that were at knock-your-head-off level. JustDavid was up front and managed to avoid the first one, but caught a branch off the second one square between the eyes. He's ok (broken nose and a few cuts nothing a beer or two can't fix) but it's a damn shame he didn't finish trail. We already have a few ideas for his naming. Come on JustDavid, show up and see how uncreative we are.

So with drama and trauma going on while we were at the beer check that the hares had us run across a highway and continue on. The rest is kind of a blur, but a week later, I realize there is Poison Ivy all over my legs so we must have run through some of that too.

Fact is often funnier than fiction. When its not, you just have to make it up on your own.

Long Time No Seers

Dammit they showed up and drank my beer. Maybe they won't next week.

JagQueen, K.Y. Belly, Fag

JagQueen has been gone for so long he's forgotten how to drink a beer.

Hash Shit

Despite telling us the story of how he had rear ended a guy in the middle of the road without protection, somehow Sucks Cock For Crack managed to avoid getting the hash shit. Instead, Indiana Bone and the Tampon of Doom was awarded the hash shit for inviting 2Guys Fucking to the WH4 1000th. This guy makes AssFinder look normal and scared the shit out of children and many adults.

Virgins

JustJim was the only new guy we had today. I'm sure he said something funny, but he doesn't have tits, so I wasn't listening.

How ButtBrownAle got his name

Apparently KneeDeep was nice enough to provide 2GuysFucking a butt chug while on the boat. [For those of you who don't know, a butt chug is when someone pours a beer down the crack of one person into the waiting mouth of another person. Our own PussyWhipped did one off himself in a feat to win tickets from DC101, but that's a story for another time.] Anyway, ButtBrownAle decided he wanted to do one too, only 2GuysFucking stepped in real quick like and instead, ButtBrown wound up doing a butt chug off of him.

Just David Named

So this guy named Just David was chosen to get named today. God knows why, but between the tattoos on his arms and the number of runs, I guess it's about time. On his left arm, the tattoo says "Made in Canada" and on his right arm is the UPC code for a Molson Canadian (which unfortunately doesn't scan and won't get you a free beer at the brewery. Nor will a mouse in a bottle you hoser.) We tried a few names like "Fagnum PI", "Moosehead" or "Jumped by a Mountee". But Just David will be known throughout the world of hashing as Takes It Up The Ehh.

Touchdown Jesus makes an appearance at the hash.

Fact is often funnier than fiction. When its not, you just have to make it up on your own.
